02/02/2026

Patriarchal Commissioner Presides at the Divine Service at the Community of Panagia Veligradiou, Constantinople

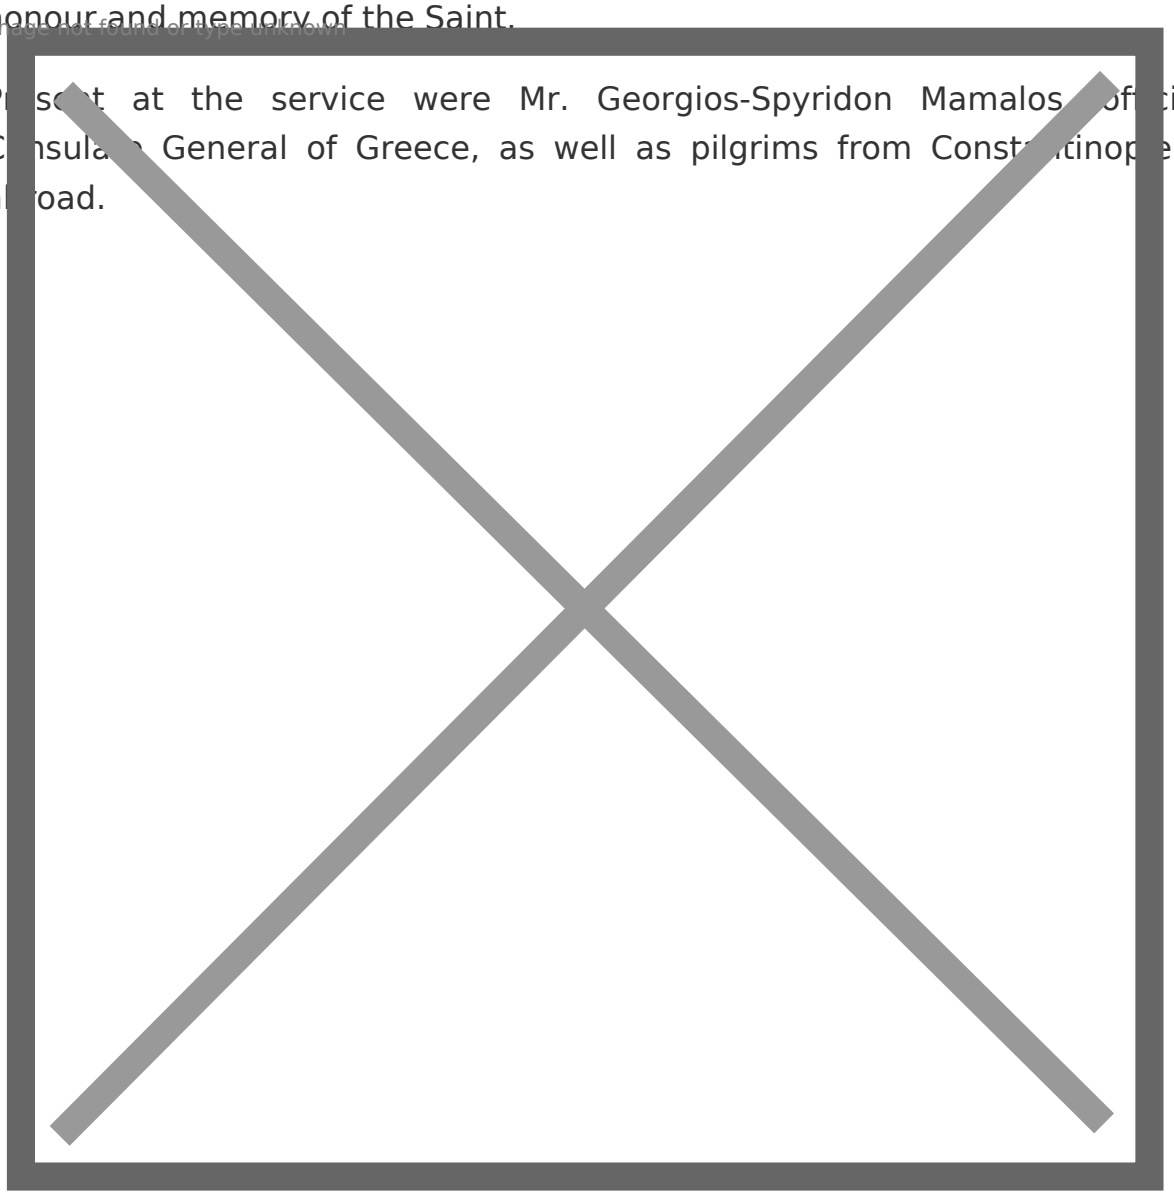

Image not found or type unknown

On the morning of Sunday, 1 February, on the feast of Saint Martyr Tryphon, the Patriarchal Commissioner, His Eminence Metropolitan Maximos of Selyvria, presided at the Divine Service at the Church of the Nativity of the Theotokos, located near the Byzantine Gate of Belgrade in Constantinople.

Following the Dismissal, the Patriarchal Commissioner blessed the kollyva in honour and memory of the Saint.

Image not found or type unknown

Present at the service were Mr. Georgios-Spyridon Mamalos, official of the Consulate General of Greece, as well as pilgrims from Constantinople and from abroad.

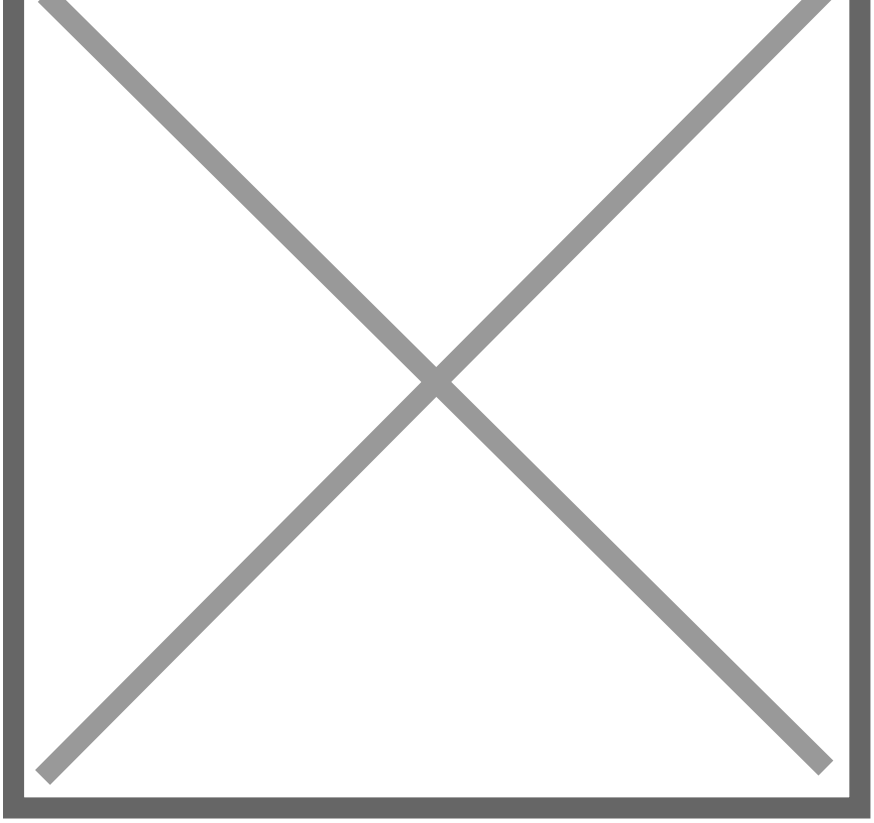

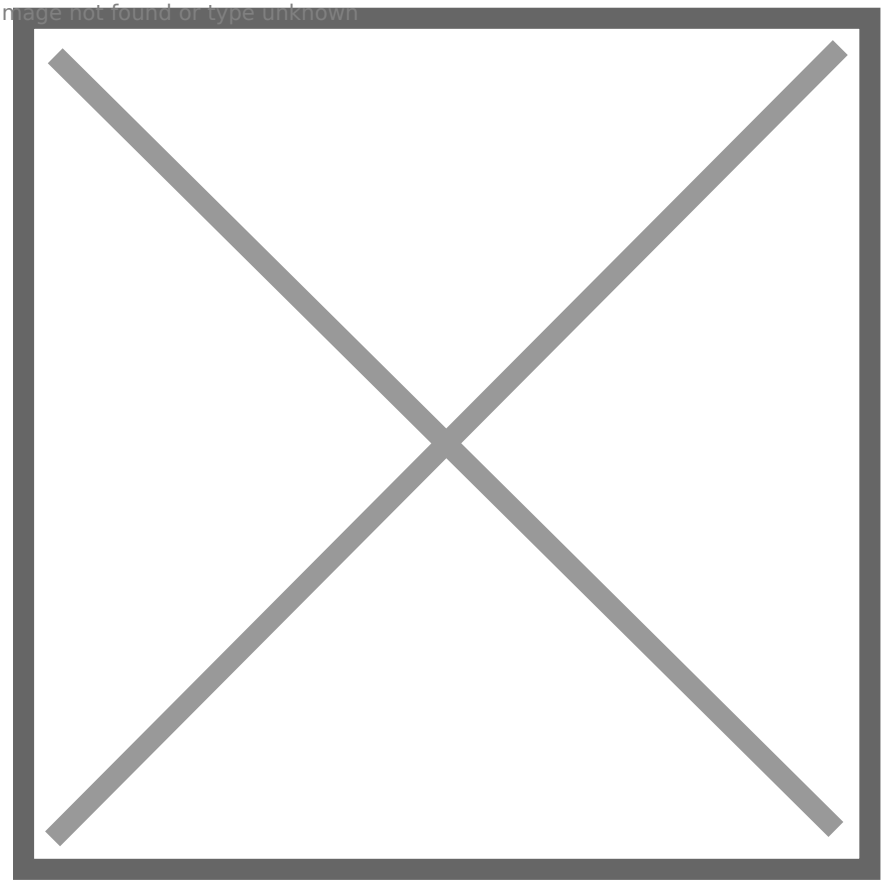

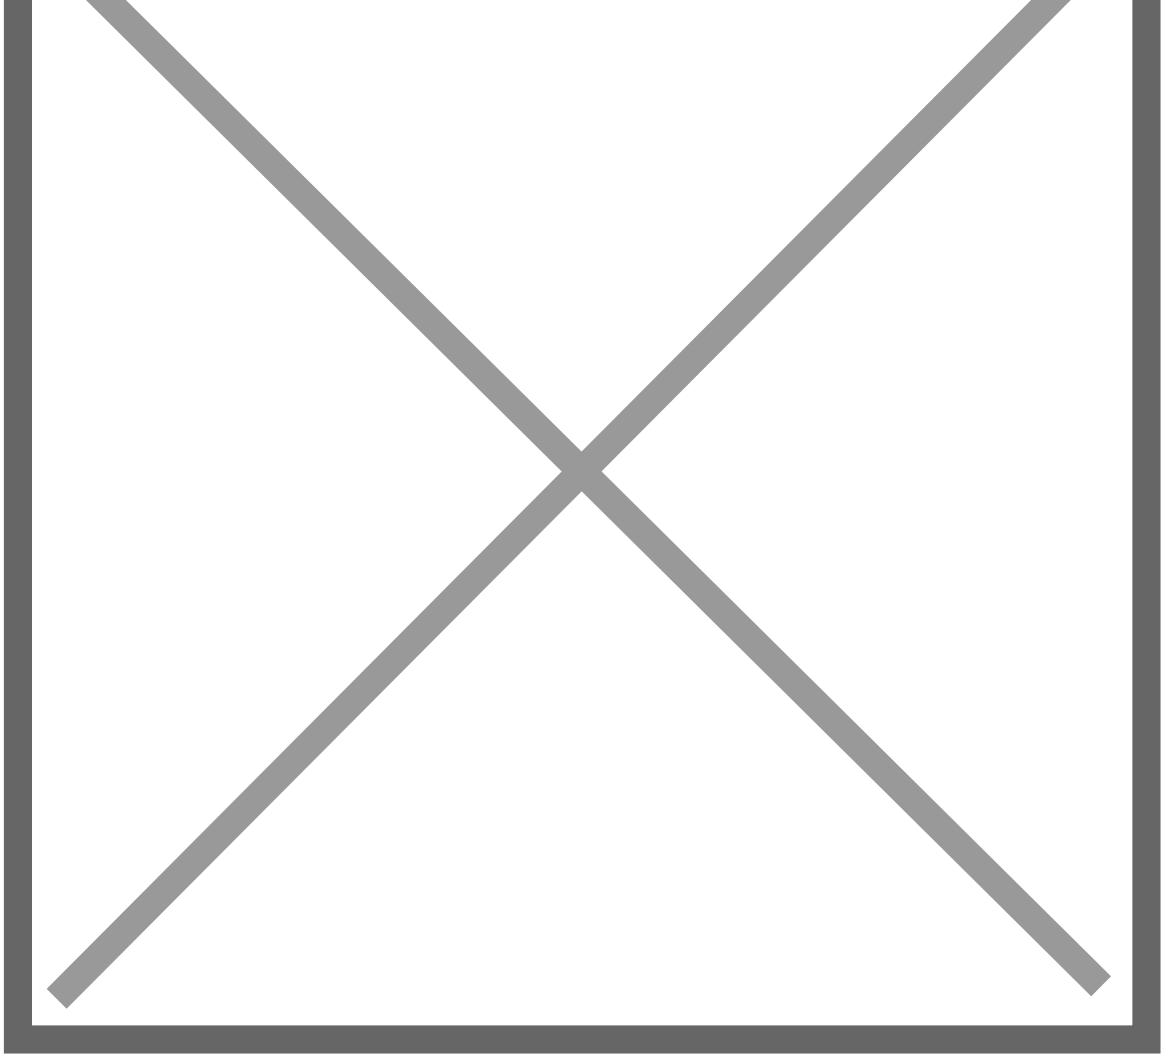

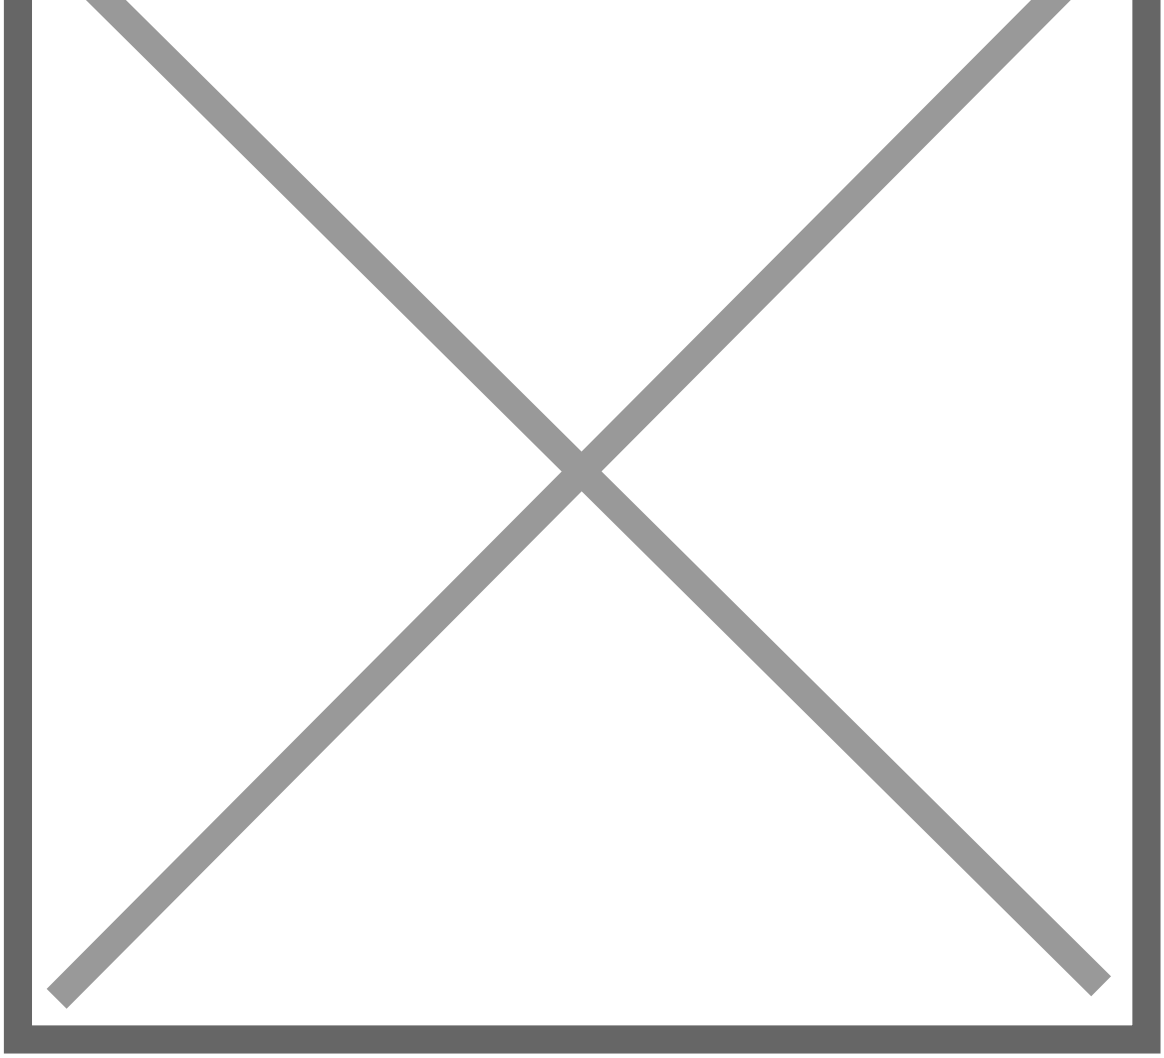

Image not found or type unknown

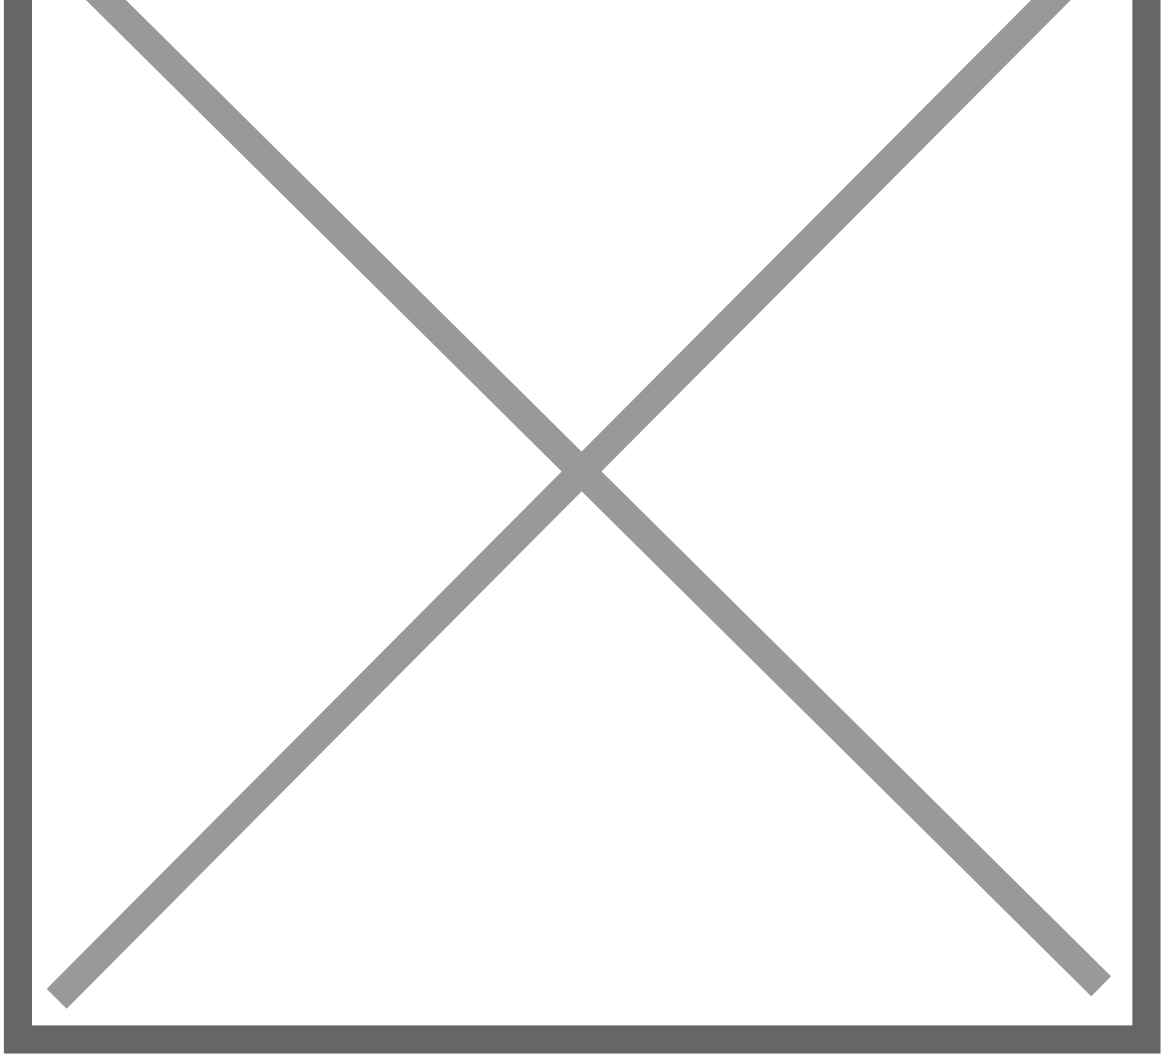

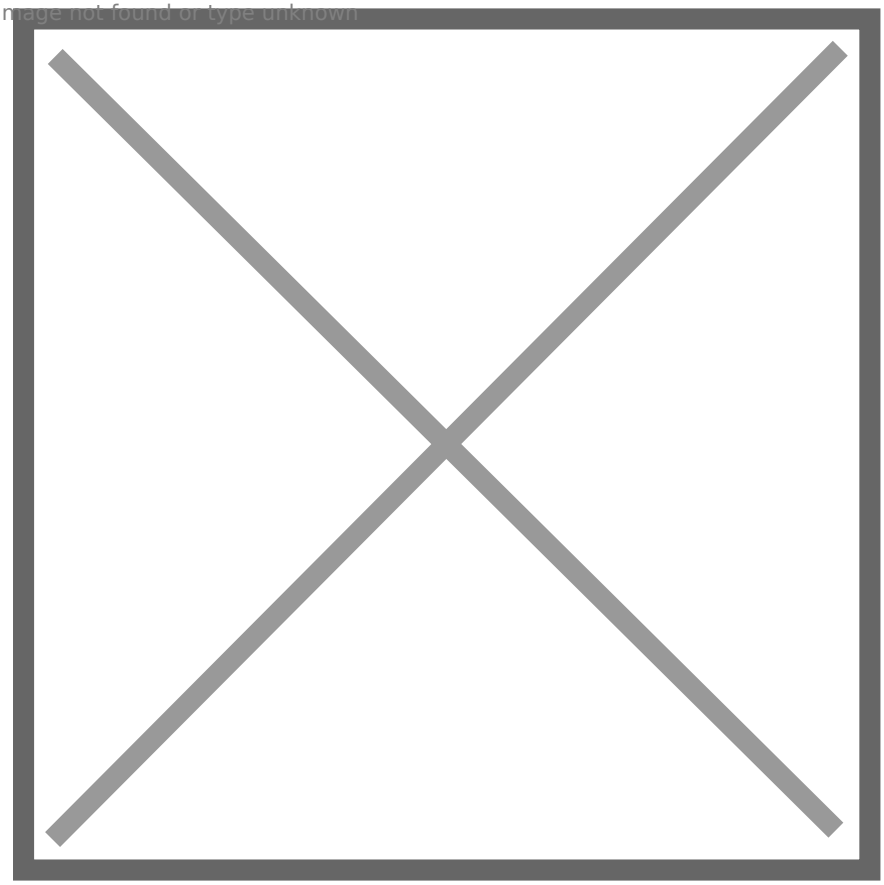

Image not found or type unknown

vema.com.au