“The Ecumenical Patriarch expresses support for the Patriarch of Antioch amid the war in the Middle East”

His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, concerned about the events taking place in the Middle East, communicated by telephone with His Beatitude Patriarch John X of Antioch, and inquired about his situation and that of the flock under his jurisdiction. He expressed his heartfelt wishes and the sincere interest of both himself and the Ecumenical Patriarchate, invoking upon them the unfailing protection of Christ, the Prince of Peace, and of the Most Holy Theotokos.
