

08/10/2019

Con'f on 'How to live in faith amid a virtual and digital world' organized by Romanian Church's Spain & Portugal Metropolis

The group Nepsis, founded by the Romanian Orthodox Church's Metropolis in Spain and Portugal, held a conference last week on the island of Grand Canary, on the subject of "How to live in faith amid a virtual and digital world".

More than 150 young people from around western Europe and Romania attended.