

The Holy Synod of the Bulgarian Orthodox Church supports the sick children

On October 9, the charity campaign of the Holy Synod of the Bulgarian Orthodox Church will begin. The campaign will start for third year, and raising money to help children with cancer. The exhibition, which will be held at the National Assembly, will feature paintings from the children's competition of St. Synod - "The Resurrection of Christ".

Charity campaign of Holy Synod of BOC-BP - "Children Draw for Children", which aims to raise funds for sick children and their families undergoing treatment at the Clinic for Pediatric Clinical Hematology and Oncology at the University Hospital "Queen Joanna - ISUL", Sofia.

- Source: bg-patriarshia.bg