

12/10/2019

If love doesn't exist, nothing exists.

When one is not free from sin, let him not blame another. Let him not lay the blame neither on the state nor on the circumstances, but on himself, on the lack of his strength in faith, on the lack of his love for God. Always those who lived in sin have blamed others. They are always ready to grumble no matter what.

As we can see, nothing can replace the lack of love, but love replaces all the shortcomings.

If love doesn't exist, nothing exists.

Based on Saint Arsenie Boca, Marin Preda

When one is not free from sin, let him not blame another. Let him not lay the blame neither on the state nor on the circumstances, but on himself, on the lack of his strength in faith, on the lack of his love for God. Always those who lived in sin have blamed others. They are always ready to grumble no matter what. As we can see, nothing can replace the lack of love, but love replaces all the shortcomings.

If love doesn't exist, nothing exists.

Based on Saint Arsenie Boca, Marin Preda

asceticexperience.com