Phanar: Patriarchal and Poly-Hierarchical Divine Liturgy for the Feast of Pentecost

On the great Feast of Pentecost, as announced by the Ecumenical Patriarchate, His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew will preside at the Great Vespers on Saturday, 30 May, at 4:00pm, in the Patriarchal Church at the Phanar, and will officiate at the customary Patriarchal and Poly-Hierarchical Divine Liturgy on the following day, Sunday, 31 May, during which he will perform the episcopal ordination of His Grace Bishop-elect Panaretos of Tamissos.

Following the dismissal, the Ecumenical Patriarch will celebrate the Vespers of the Holy Spirit and read the Kneeling Prayers.
