

Tens of thousands of faithful venerate holy relics of St. Paraskeva the New and St. Spyridonas

Tens of thousands of faithful in the Romanian city of Iasi waited patiently for hours in order to venerate the holy relics of St. Paraskeva the New of Iasi and St. Spyridonas.

The relic of St. Spyridonas was conveyed to Romania by the Metropolitan of Corfu, His Eminence Nektarios.

In his address to nearly 120,000 worshippers, the Archbishop of Iași and Metropolitan of Moldavia and Bucovina, His Eminence Teofan, thanked them for their pilgrimage, referring to a “lesson of faith”.
