

Hierarchical Trisagion Service for the Benefactors of the Zappeion School of Constantinople

On Wednesday, 3 June, a Hierarchical Trisagion Service for the repose of the souls of the renowned Great Benefactors of the Zappeion Educational Institution of Constantinople, Constantine and Evangelos Zappas, was celebrated at the Church of the Holy Trinity in Taksim by His Eminence Metropolitan Andreas of Forty Churches, Hierarchical Head of the Historic Community of Stavrodromi.

In attendance were the Principals, teaching staff, and students of the Zappeion School of Constantinople, who gathered to honour the memory and enduring legacy of the institution's distinguished benefactors.

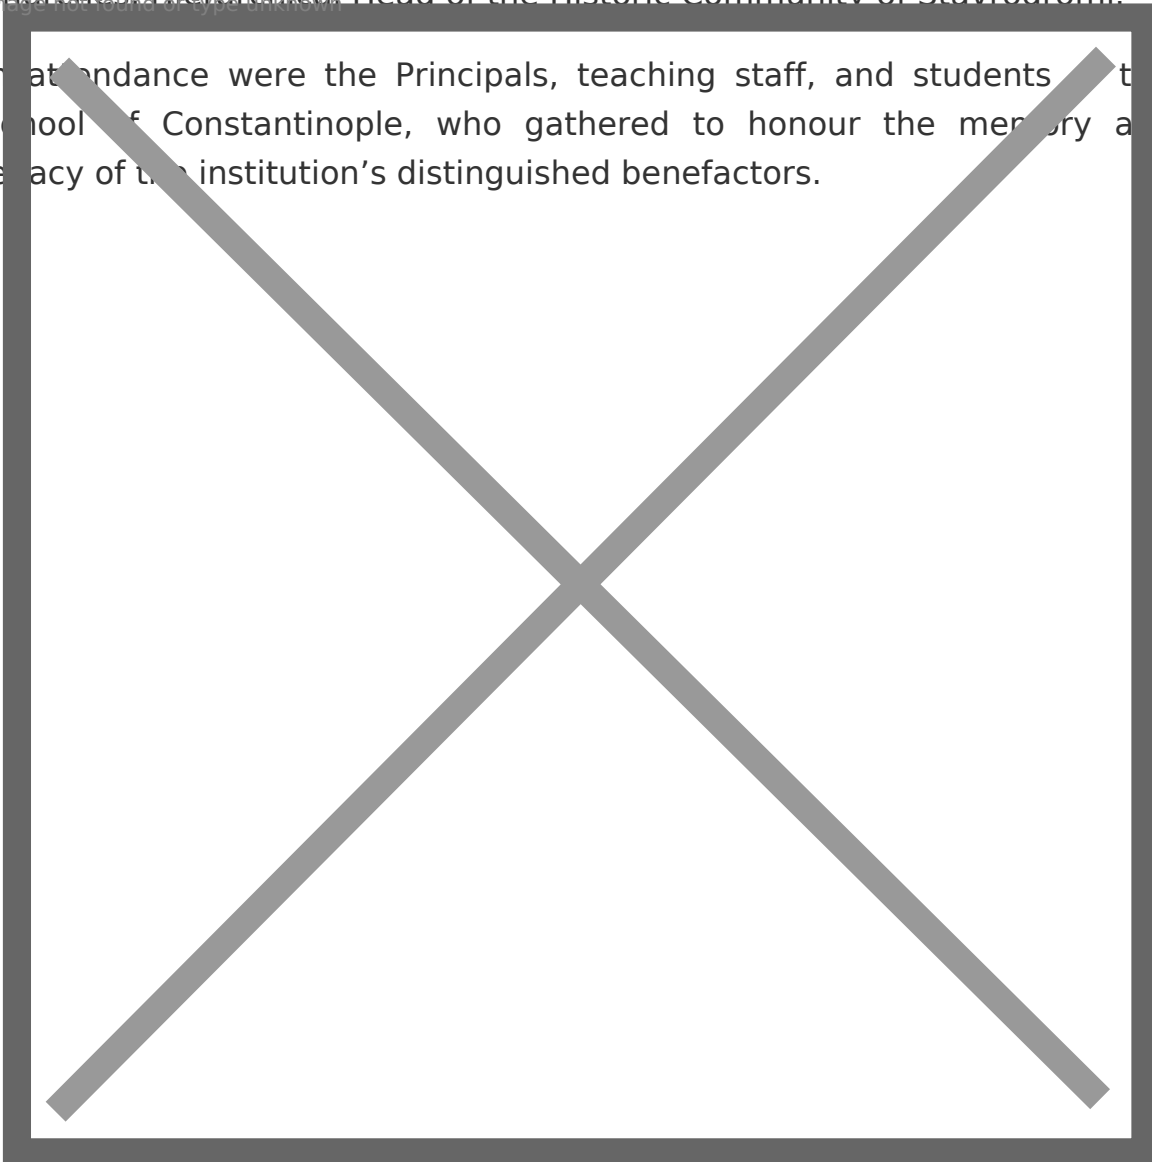

Image not found or type unknown

vema.com.au