

Archbishop Nikitas of Thyateira and Great Britain visited Margate

On Wednesday, 15 October 2019, His Eminence Archbishop Nikitas visited the Community of the Archangel Michael in Margate where he attended the Divine Liturgy served by His Eminence Metropolitan Athenagoras of Belgium.

Also, present were the participants of the International Commission for Anglican-Orthodox Theological Dialogue which was convened in Canterbury.

Following the Divine Liturgy, the Priest-in-Charge of the Community, The Very Revd Archim. Vissarion Kokliotis welcomed the visitors and thanked His Eminence Archbishop Nikitas for his first visit to the Parish of the Archangel Michael and invited him to preside at the Service of the Blessing of the Waters at the port of Margate in January 2020.
