

21/10/2019

Patriarch of Alexandria greets delegation from Paphos, Cyprus

The Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, His Most Divine Beatitude Theodoros II, this week again sent a message of peaceful coexistence between the peoples of the Mediterranean and the resolution of whatever differences, in receiving some 100 pilgrims and officials from the Cypriot city of Paphos. The visit comes within the framework of events twinning Paphos with the ancient Egyptian metropolis of Alexandria.

