

Archbishop of Canada Presides at the Patriarchal Church at the Phanar

His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew prayerfully attended the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, 30 August, at the Patriarchal Church of Saint George at the Phanar, at which His Eminence Archbishop Apostolos of Canada presided.

The Divine Liturgy was attended by the Hierarchs who are members of the Holy and Sacred Synod, together with a large number of faithful.

Following the dismissal, His All-Holiness blessed the congregation and extended a special welcome to groups of pilgrims from Cyprus and Crete, before distributing the antidoron to the faithful.
