

His Beatitude Patriarch Theophilos III Visits St Gerasimos and Oversees Restoration Efforts

His Beatitude Theophilos III, Patriarch of the Holy City of Jerusalem, all Palestine, and Jordan, paid an inspection visit this morning to the Monastery of Saint Gerasimos (Deir Hajla). During the visit, His Beatitude reviewed daily operations and the progress of ongoing restoration and repair work on the premises. He met with the staff and workers, as well as holding a meeting with a representative of the monastics.

According to a statement issued by the Patriarchate, His Beatitude expressed his deep satisfaction with the tangible progress achieved in the monastery's restoration and development. He conveyed his gratitude to the official Palestinian authorities for their continued support of the Patriarchate's efforts in this endeavor, and for their active role in safeguarding and protecting the monastery's properties and real estate from targeting or encroachments.
