

Ambassador Duncan Honoured with the Order of the Christ Loving by Archbishop Makarios of Australia

Ambassador Duncan was deeply honoured to be invested with the Order of the Christ Loving by His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia in a solemn ceremony at the Australian Residence in Athens yesterday. The honour recognises her distinguished service, generosity of spirit, and dedication to fostering the enduring bonds between Greece and Australia, including her support for the Greek-Australian community in preserving their rich heritage.

We were privileged to welcome an intimate group of distinguished guests for this special occasion, including His Grace Bishop Athinagoras of Canberra, His Grace Bishop Evmenios of Chora, Rev. Deacon Timothy Mavromatis, Deputy Prime Minister of Greece Kostis Hatzidakis, Minister of Education and Religious Affairs Sofia Zacharaki, Minister of State Akis Skertsos, Deputy Foreign Minister Alexandra Papadopoulou, Secretary General of the Greek MFA Teresa Angelatou, German Ambassador Andreas Kindl, Co-Founder of Women Act May Zanni, and Ms Alice Kokodis.
