

Patriarch Irinej expresses best wishes to the Radio Slovo Ljubve

By its broadcasting the Radio Slovo Ljubve (Word of Love) has strengthened the mission of the Serbian Church in the past decade,” His Holiness Patriarch Mr. Irinej pointed out in his message to this Church Radio on the occasion of its 10th anniversary.

“In this year when we mark the great jubilee of the 800 years of the autocephaly of the Serbian Orthodox Church, we are glad to express Our best wishes to the editors, journalists, employees and all associates of the Radio Slovo Ljubve of the Archdiocese of Belgrade-Karlovci on the occasion of ten years of their committed activity and regular broadcasting that has strengthened the mission of our local Church in the past decade . We offer Our prayerful wishes that our Church Radio may continue to strengthen the faith of our people in the future, spreading the Word of the Gospel to the world, to the glory the Creator, and for the benefit of the Church and our Fatherland. Many years!” said the Patriarch Irinej in his written message.

spc.rs