

31/10/2019

Metropolitan Vladimir participated in the conference dedicated to the power and significance of the Gospel in modern society

Metropolitan of Chisinau and Moldova Vladimir participated on Wednesday, 30 October 2019, in the conference “Imperishable power and significance of the Gospel in the modern society” held in Moscow.

The conference was held within the Sixth plenary of the interconfessional Christian Committee, and included representatives of Orthodox, Catholic, and Protestant communities from Russia, Belarus, Azerbaijan, Armenia, Moldova, Georgia, Estonia, and Kazakhstan.

His Eminence Vladimir, accompanied by the metropolitan secretary, archpriest Vadim Cheibas, participated in the forum at the invitation of the Conference organizers.

The conference participants discussed opportunities of joint solutions of the most acute problems of the contemporary society.

— Source: Synodal Sector of Institutional Communication and Mass-Media Relations / en.mitropolia.md