Archdiocese of America's 2020 budget approved

The 2020 budget of the Archdiocese of America has been approved, with his Eminence, Archbishop Elpidophoros, expressing his appreciation for the work done by all to accomplish the important task, saying the budget provides "...for notable changes in the current needs of our Archdiocese, while still being a balanced budget. I am especially grateful for the support extended by our Synod, Executive Committee and full Archdiocese Council for Hellenic College Holy Cross."
