Archbishop of Albania receives Athens Professional Chamber of Commerce delegation

The Archbishop of Albania, His Beatitude Anastasios, this week received members of delegation from Athens' Professional Chamber of Commerce.

Still in Europe, the proto-presbyterian of the Ecumenical Throne, Fr. Nicholas Xenos, has assumed the post of General Archieratic Commissioner for the Holy Metropolis of France.

Fr. Nicholas, who hails from the Ionian island of Zakynthos, has served as a Metropolitan of France priest since 1990 and from 2007 has ministered at the Greek Orthodox chapel of the Presentation of Christ, in the Sartrouville district of Paris.
