Church hierarch visits French naval vessel at port of Kalamata

The First Secretary of the Metropolis of Messinia, in extreme southwest Greece, Archimandrite Filippos Hamaryias, this week visited the French naval support vessel Loire, representing the Metropolitan of Messinia, His Eminence Chrysostomos, and following an invitation by the vessel's commander, Stéphane Le-Ven. The vessel docked at the port of Kalamata after participating in a military exercise in the central Mediterranean.
