

Archbishop of Australia presided at Great Vespers service on Feast Day of St. Arsenios the Cappadocian

The Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios, on Saturday presided at the Great Vespers service for the feast day of St. Arsenios the Cappadocian, held in the Earlwood district of Sydney.

Personal items of St. Paisius were venerated along with a Holy Relic of St. Arsenios. As the Archbishop explained to the faithful, St. Paisius was the spiritual offspring and student of St. Arsenios the Cappadocian.
