

11/11/2019

Metropolitan of Aetolia and Akarnania speaks to Orthodoxia news agency

The Metropolitan of Aetolia and Akarnania, His Eminence Kosmas, spoke to the Orthodoxia news agency this week over his fervor in spreading the Gospel from one corner of the world to the other, adding that the faithful are “thirsty” for the Word of God.

“People are flocking for confession, in humbleness, accepting the messages of the era... prayer is a difficult task, because we have not overcome our ego,” he expressively said in an interview.