

The Metropolis of Chicago releases a statement regarding the interim Parish Council of the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church of Chicago

The Metropolis of Chicago released a statement on November 13, 2019 regarding the interim Parish Council of the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church of Chicago.

His Eminence Metropolitan Nathanael encourages all members of the Metropolis “to help the interim Parish Council shoulder the great responsibility to restructure and revitalize the Holy Trinity parish and contribute to its spiritual growth.”

On November 13, 2019, the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago made the following statement concerning the governance of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church:

On Sunday, November 10, an interim Parish Council of the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church of Chicago officially was installed. Following the celebration of the Divine Liturgy, the Affirmation of Office was administered by the Very Reverend Archimandrite Timothy Bakakos, Chancellor of the Metropolis of Chicago. The interim Parish Council will serve for a period of no more than one year and now consists of members from the Holy Trinity parish and neighboring parishes including:

- Jeffrey Chrones, St. Andrew, Chicago
- Owen Field, St. George, Chicago
- Anthony Frankos, St. Basil, Chicago
- Dimitri Haralampopoulos, St. Demetrios, Chicago
- Phillip Hatzopoulos, St. Andrew, Chicago
- George Katsambas, Holy Trinity, Chicago
- James Lakerdas, Assumption, Chicago
- Peter Mihopoulos, Holy Trinity, Chicago
- Kevin Miologos, Annunciation Cathedral, Chicago
- Spiro Pantazis, Holy Trinity, Chicago
- Sandy Rigopoulos, St. John the Baptist, Des Plaines
- Peter Stamatis, St. John the Baptist, Des Plaines

While expressing his gratitude to the Parish Council members who served Holy Trinity during the difficulties of the past few years, His Eminence Metropolitan Nathanael encourages all members of the Metropolis “to help the interim Parish Council shoulder the great responsibility to restructure and revitalize the Holy Trinity parish and contribute to its spiritual growth.” The faithful of the Metropolis, along with all people of goodwill, are asked for their continued prayers and support of the Holy Trinity community.
