

14/11/2019

Ecumenical Patriarch concludes visit to Benelux countries

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, this week concluded his tour of the Benelux countries, visiting the Metropolis of Belgium on Thursday, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary since its founding.

After his busy itinerary in the Benelux countries, His All Holiness, often referred to in the international press as the “Green Patriarch”, visited the verdant Ardennes Forest natural park.

— Photos: Nikolaos Magginas