Romanian pilgrims walk nearly 600km to attend celebration of St. John Chrysostom Feast Day in Bucharest

Dozens of pilgrims in the Romanian Orthodox Church Metropolis of Maramures and Satmar, many dressed in traditional garb, walked more than 600 kilometers in order to participate in the Feast Day of St. John Chrysostom, held at Bucharest's Cathedral of the Savior.

The Bishop of Ploesti, His Grace Varlaam, greeted the faithful and spoke to them about the life and teachings of St. John Chrysostom.
