

19/11/2019

Pro-life initiative again to be held in Yekaterinburg

The initiative “Week for Life” will once again take place in the Russian city of Yekaterinburg. The initiative aims to sensitize public opinion over the issue of abortion, as well as to offer support to women and their families so that the former continue their pregnancy and raise their offspring.

The initiative has the blessing of the Metropolitan of Yekaterinburg and Verkhoturye, His Eminence Kirill.