

Greek Dep. FM concludes visit to Canada; visit to Greek Orthodox Archdiocese, schools

Greek Deputy Foreign Minister Antonis Diamataris concluded a visit to Canada, where he was received at the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese, before visiting several Greek-language schools and meeting with members of the Greek-Canadian community.

Diamataris, who holds the expatriate Greeks and religious affairs portfolio, was greeted at the Archdiocese's Metamorphosis Day School, by the school's administrators, educators and pupils.
