

27/11/2019

Archbishop of Australia visits Basil residential age care center in Lakemba

The Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios, visited the St. Basil day and residential age care center in Lakemba, a suburb of inner southwest Sydney.

His Eminence Makarios met with the center's staff and spoke with a number of residents, while also praying in a chapel dedicated to St. Basil the Great, which is located within the facility.

