

29/11/2019

Attacks continued by Islamist terror group ADF in NE Congo

This past month proved deadly for the Christian communities in the war-ravaged northeast of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, with reports citing at least 10 attacks in November by the Islamist terror group ADF, which claimed the lives of around 100 people, most of whom were Christians.