

Orthodox Christians collected over 1 ton of food for a children's church shelter in Bulgaria

The Christians in Simitli, Bulgaria have shown that they love to help. At the beginning of November, the parish at the „Nativity of Christ“ Church in Simitli launched an initiative to support the orphanage, located in Novi Han, where the Church helps 300 children.

Many people joined the initiative and thanks to their donations, over 1 ton of food was collected. The groceries were brought to the orphanage just before the Christmas holidays. The charity event is happening for another year.
