

Archbishop of Athens & All Greece receives visiting President of Serbia

The Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, His Beatitude Ieronymos, on Wednesday received the visiting President of Serbia, Alexander Vucic.

The Serbian leader is on an official visit to Greece, and was also received by the country's leadership.

Afterwards, His Beatitude met with Alternate Citizens Protection Minister Giorgos Koumoutsakos.

The latter holds the migration policy portfolio.

Talks centered on the still acute migration crisis, and cooperation between the Church and state over the issue.

photos – video George Ferdis

<https://www.orthodoxianewsagency.gr/wp-content/uploads/2019/12/video-1576071430.mp4>

