

12/12/2019

Archpastoral Visit to Sts. Constantine and Helen in Cambridge, MA

On Sunday, December 8, 2019 His Eminence Metropolitan Methodios celebrated the Divine Liturgy at the Sts. Constantine and Helen Parish in Cambridge, MA. It was the first time that the relics of Sts. Anargyroi, St. George, St. Tryfon, St. Haralambos, and the Holy Cross, which were recently entrusted to the care of the Parish were offered for veneration by the congregation. At the end of the Divine Liturgy a token of appreciation was offered to family of Mr. George Gourgoulitos.

A community luncheon, sponsored by the Parish Council and the Philoptochos Society, was offered in the parish center. His Eminence was very happy to spend time in fellowship with the faithful of the community and to see many of the parish's youth present.

boston.goarch.org