Students from the Hellenic Academy of Lowell Visit the Philoxenia House

On Friday, December 13, 2019 a group of students from the Hellenic Academy of the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Lowell, MA together with their parish priest Fr. Nicholas Pelekoudas and their teachers visited the Philoxenia House.

His Eminence Metropolitan Methodios together with the residents of the home welcomed the children to the home.

The students made it a very bright and joyous visit by bringing gifts for the residence and singing Christmas carols and songs for them. They also spent some time visiting with His Eminence and the residents.
