

Bell-ringing charity event in Urals city

A charity event featuring bell-ringing was held at the Cathedral of the Nativity in the city of Vrchni Uralye, in central Russia.

Students of a bell-ringing school took part in the event, held before Christmas Eve, celebrated by the Russian Orthodox Church with the Julian calendar. The charitable event aims to provide support to large-member families and households in need.

