

12.000 people in the procession in Bijelo Polje, Montenegro

Archpriest Milosav Jovanovic: the Gentiles rose to persecute the Church of Christ, to persecute Christ from Montenegro.

After an acathist officiated in the church of Sts Peter and Paul in Bijelo Polje, some 12.000 faithful went in a prayerful procession to the church of St. Nicholas at Nikoljac. This procession was joined by a group of faithful from Zaton having walked on foot some 15 km.

“God will not let that happen. We are witnessing to the iniquity that is being exercised over our holy Church. The non-baptized raised to desecrate our holy shrines. They do not know that they raised their hand at St. Basil of Ostrog and St. Peter of Cetinje, and it is known in which way the one who raises his hand at this saint of God ends. Metropolitan Basil the Wonderworker of Ostrog gathers us around the churches of God. To him be glory and mercy! He gathers and invites this people. I hope they won't bring a lawsuit against St. Basil for what is going on. It would not be their first time, because they do not know who St. Basil is. They do not know that he is a great Miracle-Worker and that he prays for them that they might come to their mind," said priest Milosav Jovanovic.

— Source: spc.rs