

10/01/2020

Jonathan Jackson talks about his orthodox faith in Greece

Singer-songwriter Jonathan Jackson chatted with Digital Journal about the upcoming album “Ultraviolet Empire” with Enation

He also spoke about the GoFundMe campaign for the Orthodox Monastery in Ireland, which was started by Sister Iosifia, a Romanian Orthodox nun that lives in Ireland. To learn more about his campaign, click here. “We are going to continue to support her and the monastery in Ireland. It’s amazing what they are doing,” he said.

Jackson visited Greece this past November since they were premiering a documentary that he filmed over there about Elder Joseph the Hesychast. “That was exciting,” he said. “Hopefully, they will have an English version and perhaps some premieres and screenings.”

digitaljournal