Exclusive interview by Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa to Orthodoxia news agency

The Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, His Divine Beatitude Theodoros II, offers his thoughts on peace, the continued persecution of Christians in the Middle East, efforts to fight poverty as well as the contentious issue of autocephaly for the Ukrainian Orthodox Church, in an exclusive interview with the Orthodoxia news agency.

The interview will be posted on Tuesday.

The Patriarch of Alexandria recounts the difficulties and tribulations he has faced as an Orthodox missionary and hierarch in Africa, saying he persevered with tears and prayer.
