

Archbishop of Australia visits Church-run youth summer camp

The Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios, this week visited a youth summer camp run by the Monastery of Pantanassa and the Greek Orthodox Christian Society of Sydney, two institutions under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Australia.

His Eminence was enthusiastically welcomed by young campers at the facility waving Australian and Greek flags and chanting the hymn “Axion Estin”.

