

Patriarch of Alexandria receives visiting chief of Hellenic Navy

The Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, His Divine Beatitude Theodoros II, on Thursday received the chief of the Hellenic Navy general staff, Vice-Adm. Nikolaos Tsounis, at the Patriarchal diocese in Cairo.

Vice-Adm. Tsounis is in Mideast country for talks with his naval counterparts, as well as to tour a new military base near the southeast coastal city on Berenice, on the Red Sea.

Berenice Troglodytica was a well-known diocese of the Patriarchate of Alexandria in the first centuries of Christianity.

