

March for Life' campaign by Archdiocese of Iasi in support of unborn children

The Archdiocese of Iasi in Romania, with the Blessing of the Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, has announced a campaign entitled “March for Life, Parents and Children”, which includes actions and initiatives dealing with pregnancy, efforts to persuade would-be mothers to avoid abortion and the modern-day scourge of people trafficking.

The campaign, managed by the Archdiocese’s Pro Vita department, will commence in March, culminating in a major event set for Saturday, March 28.
