

22/01/2020

Orthodox Metropolis in Yekaterinburg opens homeless shelter

The local Orthodox Metropolis in the central Russian city of Yekaterinburg has opened a shelter and re-integration center for homeless people. In the initial stage, the center will host up to 10 people for up to six months, offering psychological support, help in finding employment and facilitating their return to society.