Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America: Metropolitan Joseph hosts new Consul General, Mrs. Abir Taha Audi

On Friday, January 24, His Eminence Metropolitan Joseph hosted the new Consul General of Lebanon in New York, Mrs. Abir Taha Audi, and her husband Mr. Dori Audi, at Archdiocese headquarters in Englewood, New Jersey, in order to welcome them to the United States and to get to know them better.

Mrs. Audi earned the title of Ambassador in 2017 and previously served in Geneva, Paris and Tokyo. She is looking forward to serving the Lebanese community in the northeastern United States.

The new Consul General is a Doctoral Researcher in Philosophy at the Sorbonne University, Paris, and holds a Master's degree in Political Science from the American University of Beirut. Mrs. Audi is also an internationally published author of eight books in philosophy, spirituality and politics, and she speaks fluent English, French and German.
