29/01/2020

Ecumenical Patriarch extends best wishes to hospitalized Metropolitan of Imvros & Tenedos

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, extended his best wishes on Wednesday to the Patriarchate's Metropolitan of Imvros and Tenedos, His Eminence Kirillos, who was hospitalized in the Dardanelles region of European Turkey on Tuesday.

According to an announcement by the Ecumenical Patriarchate, His All Holiness was personally briefed over the health of the Metropolitan by attending physicians.