30/01/2020

The Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago is hosting its Inaugural Servant Leadership Awards Banquet on May 1, 2020

EVENT DETAILS

The Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago is hosting its Inaugural Servant Leadership Awards Banquet on May 1, 2020, at the Cotillion Banquets in Palatine, Illinois. The evening is dedicated to honoring laypersons from throughout the Metropolis who have demonstrated service, leadership and innovation within their parishes or in their greater communities. His Eminence Metropolitan Nathanael will bestow the Metropolis Bronze Cross and other honors on individuals who best demonstrate the servant leadership ethos.

TICKETS

Go on sale in February 2020.

BECOME A SPONSOR

Sponsorship funds will be used to support critical Metropolis initiatives, including enhancing religious literacy; providing continuing education and formation opportunities for our clergy; growing the Metropolis Parish Assistance Fund; and meeting the general needs of the Metropolis.

Guests of the Banquet and members of the Metropolis are encouraged to review the Awards Banquet Sponsorship Packet on the event page and consider making a donation. Sponsorships will be recognized at the Banquet and on the Metropolis website.

For more information, please visit: chicago.goarch.org/servant-leadership-awards

— Source: chicago.goarch.org