Perth the latest Australian city to host youth Orthodox youth con’f

The western Australian city of Perth will be the latest location on the island continent to host a conference of Orthodox youth, an initiative by the Archdiocese of Australia, which has the blessing of the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I. The year 2020, in fact, has been dedicated to youth and young people by the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

The conference will be hosted in the Holy Monastery of St. John, in Forrestfield.
