Orthodox Metropolis of Korea cancels events for the 120th Anniversary of Orthodoxy in Korea due to the corona virus

The Orthodox Metropolis of Korea has issued the following statement reagarding the cancellation of celebratory events for the 120 Anniversary of Orthodoxy in Korea:

> Please be informed that due to the corona virus problem, we had to cancel all the organized events for the 120 Anniversary of Orthodoxy in Korea (February 21 to 23). We ask for your understanding in this matter. God willing, we are planning to hold these events once things have been normalized. We hope and pray that the problem is solved soon.
