Holy Relic of St. George to be conveyed to Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Thyateira & Great Britain

A portion of the Holy Relic of St. George will be conveyed from the Holy Monastery of Xenophontos, on Mount Athos, to the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Thyateira and Great Britain, following the blessing and intercession of Archbishop His Eminence Nikitas.

According to an announcement, the Holy Relic will be hosted by the Archdiocese in Great Britain for the spiritual renewal and sanctification of the faithful during Holy and Great Lent, and specifically from March 5 to March 17.
