25/02/2020

Delegation of the Serbian Orthodox Church arrived in Jordan

Serbian Patriarch Irinej and a delegation of the Serbian Orthodox Church were welcomed at Queen Alia Airport near Amman, the capital of Jordan, on February 25, 2020.

His Holiness Patriarch Irinej and a delegation of the Serbian Orthodox Church were welcomed on behalf of the host, His Beatitude Patriarch Teophilos III of Jerusalem and All Palestine, by Their Eminences hierarchs Benedict and Christopher, Archimandrite Raphael, Benedict and Athanasius, and Cross-bearing archpriests Irenaeus, Abraham, Alexios, Peter, Gerasimos and Arsenios.

The delegation of the Serbian Orthodox Church, next to His Holiness, consists of His Eminence Metropolitan Amfilohije of Montenegro-Coastlands; His Grace Bishop Irinej of Backa and His Grace Bishop David of Krusevac.

The Patriarch and his delegation are accompanied by protopresbyter-staurophor Milutin Timotijevic, principal of the Seminary of Sts. Cyrill and Methodius in Nis; protodeacon Damjan Bozic, PhD, editor-in-chief of newspaper Orthodoxy and periodical Theological Views; deacon Aleksandar Prascevic, PhD, Secretary of the Office of the Serbian Patriarch, and hypodeacon Dejan Nakic, personal secretary of the Serbian Patriarch.

news agency
ΟΡΘΟΔΟΞΙΑ

لبست عمان عباءة
عمان عمان عمان

spc.rs