

01/03/2020

Greek language learning in Georgia

A seminar for college students learning foreign languages in Georgia, including Greek, was held in Tbilisi's theological academy last week.

The goal of the seminar was to cultivate an experiential relationship with the foreign language they are studying.

On her part, Greek language teacher Yuli Sosiashvili noted that classical languages, such as Greek and Latin, have for centuries, and even today, comprise a primary element of European education.

ALSO READ: At Tbilisi Theological Academy and Seminary an event titled "We Are Learning Foreign Languages" was held

Image not found or type unknown

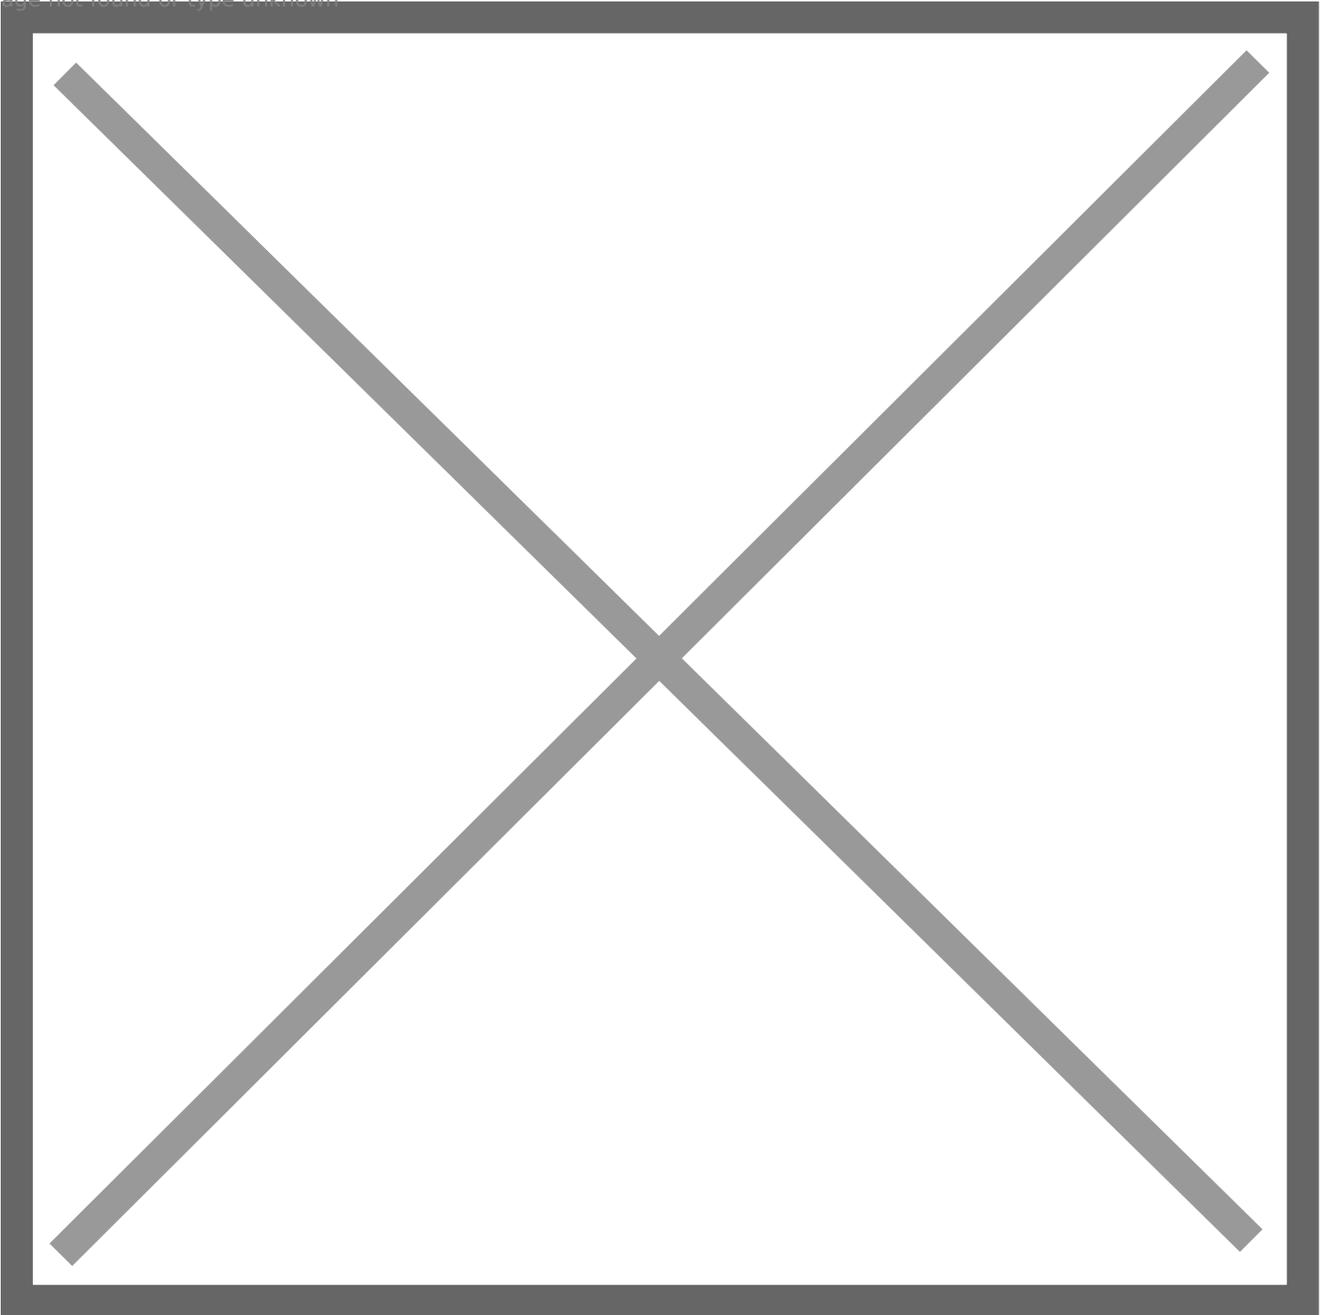

Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

