04/03/2020

Parish of St. Catherine in Uganda hosts event on food safety, production

The Orthodox Church of St. Catherine in the Uganda town of Vuba hosted a three-day event this week, organized by the Association of Orthodox Church Mothers, whereby trained professionals spoke on the issue of crop cultivation, safe food production and storage. The Association represents 60 Orthodox parishes in the country.

