16/03/2020

Romanian Church opens monasteries to those in need

The Romanian Orthodox Church has offered monasteries and nunneries under its jurisdiction at the disposal of authorities in order to shelter people in need.
The historic Neamts Monastery in northeast Romania has already allocated space in order to accommodate 40 people.