20/03/2020

Please stay calm, and at home!

Please remain in the safety of your homes, strictly follow directions by the World Health Organization and your local public health authorities in order to reduce exposure to the coronavirus.

Keep safe distances, avoid congregating in public, wash your hands regularly and don’t touch your face – and, above all, stay calm.